I hope I am a better cook, & my life has certainly been easier, but I learned from her that a pot of soup is warmth & welcome for family & friends alike." In this stunningly rich & wide-ranging book, Barbara Kafka gives the food we love perhaps best in the world a new vitality. Though the subject is so familiar to us all, her approach is totally original, just as it was in her award-winning 'Roasting: A Simple Art' &...
