This officer started in my direction, shout ing, What do you mean shooting your own men! He was evidently trying to rally what he thought were his own men. I shot at him but missed. I checked to a trot, and he was soon at my side and seemed surprised when I demanded his revolver. He handed it over, saying, I surrender--thought I was with my own men. I started to the rear, and as one of our men asked for the rebel horse, I ordered my prisoner to dismount, which he did in very cool, military style. I then started to the rear with him on double-quick. Had gone a short distance when he said he had been up all night and was very...
