

Remarkable Adventures of Portuguese Joe Silvey

By Jean Barman

Harbour Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Remarkable Adventures of Portuguese Joe Silvey, Jean Barman, British Columbia is known for the colourful pioneers who helped build and shape the character of this weird but wonderful province. And few were as colourful as Portuguese Joe Silvey -- a saloon keeper, whaler and pioneer of seine fishing in British Columbia. From harpooning whales in small open rowboats, to serving up liquor to rambunctious millworkers, to being the first man to have a seine license in BC, Silvey was the Renaissance man of his generation. His friends were many, and included saloon keeper Gassy Jack Deighton for whom Vancouver's Gastown is named, his prestigious grandfather-in-law Chief Kiapilano (of the Capilano Nation) and a remittance man who liked to wear either his wife's clothes or none at all. Although Portuguese Joe and his family prospered -- he had 11 children with two wives and his many descendants still populate the BC coast -- they also had their share of grief. Joe's first wife Khaltinaht died after a few short years of marriage; his eldest child Elizabeth was later kidnapped and forced to marry against her will; and his sixth child John was murdered...
