

Christian Jihad: Two Former Muslims Look at the Crusades and Killing in the Name of Christ

By Ergun Mehmet Caner, Emir Caner

Kregel Publications, U.S. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Christian Jihad: Two Former Muslims Look at the Crusades and Killing in the Name of Christ, Ergun Mehmet Caner, Emir Caner, "Christian Jihad" is the story of a horrific journey of slaughter and conversion by the sword. It paints the picture of warriors, fighting in the name of religion. It is a journey into the darkest hour of Christianity--the Crusades. To most in the west, the Crusades are only a faded memory of events long past. But to the Islamic world, the "Crusaders" have never ended their attempt to take over the world. The authors, intent on providing more than a mere history lesson, examine the impact of the Crusades on today, question ideas like "just war," and urge Christians to learn from the past. Best-selling & Gold Medallion award-winning co-authors of "Unveiling Islam" A balanced history of the Crusades that also answers contemporary questions regarding war and the interaction between Christianity and Islam. Written by strong evangelical scholars with solid ties to the Muslim world.
