Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Reminiscences of a Pioneer Kanai Family: With References and Anecdotes of Early Honolulu One of the best legacies bestowed on anyone is a carefully kept journal maintained by the head of the household. Grateful indeed would be the recipients of a document which portrayed the happenings within the home circle from the pens of those dear ones so competent in such matters: the quaint sayings so often lost, the juvenile attempts in search of knowledge, would be preserved, thus furnishing an asset for the edification of the succeeding generation. I have before me the vision of a little flaxenhaired beauty (Bertha) at her mother's knee, in her first efforts at articulation. Many are blessed with retentive memories, but as we advance milestone by milestone, our recollections become dimmed, and the shadow of declining years casts a vaporous web around us, and there we are - the once active mind, buoyed up by vigorous youth, is lessened in its scope of action; old Father Time with his scythe intervenes; our place is taken by the new generation, and we bow to the inevitable. On you, parents of the coming generation, there devolves a task of no ordinary matter. Get busy - take into consideration the fact that in after years your children with data from the long ago will bless your foresight and memory, and acclaim, Well Done, Thou Good And Faithful Servants. It was the intention at the start to confine my efforts wholly to family matters, but as progress was made various episodes which occurred during boyhood and later years came back to me and I have injected into this production a few...
